Rep. Macco Receives Legislative Leadership Award

Green Bay – Today, Representative John Macco (R-Ledgeview) was honored to receive the Legislative Leadership Award presented by the Green Bay County Executive, Troy Steckenbach.

“Today, I am delighted to receive the Legislative Leadership Award. I am honored to work with County Executive Steckenbach and his team from my Madison office as we partner together to help the people of Brown County,” stated Rep. Macco.

During his first term in office, Rep. Macco is proud of the hometown leadership he has brought to Madison in service of the people the 88th Assembly District.

“I have always believed local officials, such as myself and colleagues in the State Legislature, have more impact on the daily lives of the residents of Brown County than what goes on in Washington. I look forward to continuing to seek ways of providing continued services and strong representation in Madison,” concluded Rep. Macco.
